CLEAR weather and a fair, square chance is all that Hayes and Wheeler require

THE roughs and rowdies will vote to-day, "rain or shine." Hence the Democratic advant age in the event of rain.

MUDDY, rainy weather, damp, unpro pitious, unforboding and dispiriting atmospheric surroundings will aid Tilden and Herdricks to-day.

ONE of the most egregious errors made by the Opposition is a reliance upon Wisconsin for Tilden and Hendricks. The Republicars of that State do not "dig potatoes" in the Centernial year.

EVERY good man, woman and child in the country will work for Hayes and Wheeler to day : even these in the District of Columbia, where they have no votes, will pray for Republican success.

THE indications are that, in the event of a close vote to-day, some one of the Southern States, either North or South Carolina for example, may decide the contest. The gallant struggle made in those States by the intrepid Republicans who still remain true to the principles of the party should not be forgotten. Whatever the result may be, they will be entitled to the credit of having done their duty as fearless par-

THE New York World places North Carolina in the list of doubtful States. This is because true and intelligent Conservatism among the voters of the Old North State is allied to the principles which preserved the Union, and since then has maintained Republican supremacy in the General Government. In other words, the World acknowledges that North Carolina is at once one of the most liberal and intellectual of all the Southern States,

A VERY ingenious and satisfactory calculation of the result of the electoral vote, calculated in Tilden's behalf, is as follows: "Solid South, 138; deduct South Carolina 7: Louisiana, 8; Florida, 4: 19—119. Add New York, 35; Indiana, 15: 50—169. He lacks 16 votes on this calculation. Those 16 must be had from New Jersey, (9,) Connecticut, (6,) Oregon, (3,) California (6) and North Carolina, (10.) North Carolina may safely be added to the deduction of 19 from the solid

We add that Wisconsin might be included by the Tilden hopefuls in the category of doubtful States from which he is expected to get the requisite sixteen ; but even then the estimate fails to elect Tilden. Again, the liberality evinced in giving both New York and Indiana to the Opposition will be at once appreciated by those who understand that the fifty votes from those two States are requisite to elect Tilden if the solid South should remain under White League and Ku-Klux rule.

THE Lynchburg Virginian, for want of of four millions of slaves and the rehabiliarguments, denominates the NATIONAL RE- tation of the revolting States, the substitu-PUBLICAN as infamous and its editor "a tion of free labor in lieu of the compulsory fool" simply because we unearthed the insystem and the conference of the sacred famy of its Presidential candidate in advising the bribery of a judge, and afterwards boasting that he would "do the same thing again under similar circumstances." Now, we respectfully submit that a man whose political course has been as infamous as that of the editor of the Virginian, and whose super-serviceable zeal in behalf of Democ racy, notwithstanding the frequent personal "soublings" administered to him by that party in his own city, ought to enable him to know what constitutes "infamy, and what it is to be a fool, if the designs tions be applied only to himself, but does not constitute him a fit censor on the acts or a judge of the quality of the brains of better or more consistent people than himself. The editor of the Virginian was an old Whig before the war, opposed to seeession, always professed to hate Democracy the Government possessed the power to and secession, and would to-day be identified with the Republican party if it was to his personal interest; but, possessing at the close of the war a newspaper, he found it more profitable to suppress his conscienti ous convictions, and has since that time out-Heroded Herod in the advocacy of extreme Democratic measures, and he has "put money in his purse" by the operation. His disposition of the fruits of their labor: has been the only dally paper in the State that has been persistent in its advocacy of the proposed nefarious amendments to the State constitution. While the more respectable Democratic journals, such as the Richmond Dispatch, have either op-posed or quietly ignored them, the Vir-ginian has been filled with the most inflammatory partisan appeals urging their adoption. The course of this editor forcibly reminds us of the old story of the rogue, who, to hide his own villainy, was the foremost and the loudest in crying, 'Stop thief!" Verily, he is a pretty speci men of humanity to prate about the infamy of a fournal whose head has been at least imbued with the virtues of consisteney. If not so "wise," in a worldly sense, as the brilliant gentus who rules. the Virginian, the editor of the NA-TIONAL REPUBLICAN may be a "fool," taking the judgment of the Virginian, but we protest against being called infamous by knave who has sold himself body, soul and breeches to a party that he spent half a lifetime in denouncing as unworthy of

ILLEGAL VOTING, MORAL TREASON.

The purity of the ballot is necessary to the success of popular government. To vote illegally is to commit moral treason against the people. Cheating at elections in this country is like stocking the cards in the games of euchre, poker or whist. The man who would be guilty of voting illegally or of countenancing ballot-box stuffing would not besitate to cheat at cards to pr mote his own interests. As no honorable man will play at cards with a blackleg without watching his opponent, with a view of protecting himself from being victimized by his tricks, so must Republicans be on the vigilant watch to-day in all those localities that are noted for Democratic frauds.

They should not hesitate to challenge and expose all attempts at fraud. It is equally important that they should insist upon the right of every legal voter to exercise the high privilege of casting his ballot in accordance with his political preferences.

Without this our boasted freedom, our vaunted system of self-government are but s pretense, a fraud, a sham and a mockery.

The tyrangy of King Caucus, which has made such fearful inroads upon the liberties of the people in the selection of candi dates, is bad enough, indeed almost insufferable, but if to this we permit ballot box stuffing, dictation, intimidation and vio lence at the polls to be added to prevent tle fair and free expression of preferences for those candidates, we shall become the most abject slaves to the worst tyranny upon the fears for the perpetuity of those institutions which our fathers fought, bled and died to establish. When we see a party pledged to carry an election at every minority, and can only be accomplished by violence at the polls and false counting in the canvass of the ballots, it is time for all true patriots to feel the most serious alarm for the welfare of the nation. It is no wonder, then, that peaceful and law-abiding citizens should indulge the mos fearful forebodings and anxieties as to the What do we see? On the one hand a party which has successfully maintained the Union of these States intact, and wisely administered the Government during sixteen years of the most trying and critical period in its history-a period that involved the very existence of the Government in its popular form as established by right of the elective franchise upon those recent slaves, with legal guaranties that such right shall forever be secured and re-handled over twenty-five thousand millions of treasure with one tenth of the percentage of loss that had accrued during the Administrations of its predecessors, modestly seeking out a true and tried patriot of the same political faith, who has been faithful to all public trusts, and presenting him to the people for their suffrages to fill the highest executive office in the gift of the nation. On the other hand, we see a party which opposed the wise policy that maintained the Government intact during the period of the rebellion; which sympathized with the attempt to disrupt the Union and repudiated the doctrine that suppress a rebellion and maintain itself intact; which opposed the emancipation of the slaves and the substitution of a free labor system in the place of slavery ; which denounced and opposed the enfranchise-ment of the late serfe, but advocated the their late masters without any voice in the

To prevent the national catastrophe which the election of the Democratic canlidate must be esteemed by all true patriots, o insure the defeat of the rebellious policy, its party and its candidates, we must rely upon the virtue, courage, vigilance and integrity of the loyal people of the country. This is the nation's only hope. But it is a sure one. It has never yet failed of fall fruition. The people of the North, as a whole, are intelligent, courageous, honest and loyal. HIGHEST AWARD AT THE CENTENNIAL The United States Centennial Commission and he Judges of Awards have unanimously decreed to feerst. WM. KNABE & CO. the Diploma of Honor nd Medal of Merit for Concert Grand, Parior Messas, WM. KNABE & CO. the Diploma of Honor and Bedal of Merit for Concert Grand, Parior Grand, Square and Upright Planos.

By the system of awards adopted Planos of all grades received medals of precisely the same character, but the time test of merit appears only in the reports of the judgres accompanying the medals. The judges pronounce the Knabe Planos to be "the best exponents of the art of Plono-making," and "fully entitled to the leading position, combining all the requisites of a perfect instrument in the highest degree—power, richness and singing quality of tone, case and elasticity of touch, effectiveness of action, solidity and originality of construction and excellence of workmanship." The Knabe award is not confined to any single style of instrument, as is the case with other exhibitors in this department, but comprises all four styles, and stands unqualified by phrases indicative of mediocrity.

good order, and fitted up in every way for a No.1 farm.

The river front is fitted up especially for excursionists, and is, without exception, the best location for this purpose on the Potomac river. There is an extensive lawn reaching down to the water's edge, numerous shade trees, arbors, bootus, patent swings, &c., and a pacifilm the largest south of Philadelphia. There is excellent fishing, bathing, and boating at the piace, and it is thought that a first-class Summer Boarding-house would pay well, as there is nothing of the kind within seventy-five miles. A public road leads down to the wharf in front of the premises, and is the principal, if not the only, outlet toward the river for fruits and produce from farmers in Charles county. The site is a good one for a store, and there is a building on the place admirably adapted for such a portose.

The steamers Mary Washington and Arrow, from Washington, touch at the wharf on their daily trips downward and upward. The Lady of the Lake, the Jane Mosely, the Thompson, and the two Raitmore boats (the Washington and the Express) stop at regular intervals, and daily excursions are run to the place.
